Send a notification if an attachment is stripped out of an incoming email due to disabled file types. Collecting Feedback

- MB Matthew Baines
- اسم المنتدى: #Feature Request

We would like to use the feature that limits email attachments to specfic file types.

However if an email comes in with a disallowed file type it is processed, the file is stripped but no notification is sent to the user.

It would be handy if an email could automatically be sent to the user to let them know their attachment has not been processed.