

Centro de asistencia > Comunidad > Feature Request > Create users without email

Create users without email Report

- C Colin
- Nombre del foro: #Feature Request

Some of our customers want to be able to access the locked down knowledgebase but do not want to use email addresses. It would be great if we could create users without email addresses, which we would have to control the password management but would certainly help us. At present we are having to create fake email addresses to accomplish this.