We're delight to announce the release of a brand new application within the .Deskpro helpdesk

The Helpdesk Data Importer allows you to effortlessly import data from other sources into Deskpro. At the moment, these sources include Kayako and Zendesk, but we plan on expanding these to include other popular helpdesks and .ticketing systems

Previously, importing data from other helpdesk sources would involve a lengthy process - including extra software, manually editing config files, and use of .command prompt

Now, the importer app exists within Deskpro itself, and can be accessed .under Admin > Apps > Importer

.Now, you simply have to choose the source of data you want to import data from

The process will begin automatically, and you will be able to see the status and progress of the import. This also includes a list of individual helpdesk data being .imported

!And it's really as simple as that
