

We have a new way of communicating our latest product updates

Our brand new Latest Updates pop up will now alert you to any changes, updates, or new !features that we've rolled out since you last logged in to Deskpro

Navigate through our announcements using the 'Next' button below, which will take you .through all the updates we've made in your helpdesk since you last logged in

We created this feature to help us communicate with our customers better and to ensure .you're made aware of all the changes we are making to your interface

This pop up will reveal everything you need to know about the latest updates to our product .that you can start using immediately
