2023-03-28 - Lara Proud - Comments (0) - Deskpro Releases

We're pleased to announce the release of Deskpro Horizon 2023.13. This release includes the new Apple App Store reviews channel.

Our team has also been working to improve our interface, enhance our UI to bring further clarity to the interface and fix several bugs across the platform. For more detail, you can see everything included in this release below.

New Features

 $\hfill \square$ We launched our Apple App Store Reviews channel so you can manage reviews in your helpdesk

You can now connect your Apple Developer account to the helpdesk to receive and manage any reviews left for your Apps on the Apple App Store. Reviews left will automatically create tickets to which agents can add a Developer Response from the helpdesk (SC 99387, 99384, 104587 & 100707).

You are able to see the rating the user left, and the country they submitted the review from, indicated by a flag on the ticket message, to provide additional context about the user. Agents can delete Developer Responses from the helpdesk which will also remove it from the App Store, or update a previous response by submitting another reply to the ticket. We also added Review Logs in Admin so you can see all the information about reviews that have been submitted or responses sent.

To add the Apple App Store as a channel for your helpdesk you can follow the App Store Setup Guide.
