Deskpro aims to make it as quick and easy as possible for you to start solving your customers' issues.

Tickets in Deskpro reveal everything you need to truly understand a customer issue - all in one place.

Convenient automation features and ticket actions also make managing and replying to tickets as easy as possible.

Learn how to view, manage, and reply to your tickets below!

The screenshot displays the Deskpro interface for a user named '221 B Helpdesk'. The left sidebar shows a 'Tickets' section with various filters like 'Queues', 'MY INBOX', 'Mine', 'I'm Following', 'My Team's', 'My Labelled', 'Starred', 'My Open', 'Test queue', 'INBOX', 'Unassigned', 'Pending', 'SLA Failed', 'All Open', 'Open Problem', 'VIP AWAITING AGENT', 'Lists', 'Search', 'Problems (8)', 'My Stars', and 'Labels'. The main area shows a ticket titled 'New Starter in Admin' with ID '372' and status 'Urgent'. Below the ticket title, there are sections for 'Awaiting Agent' (1), 'Agent' (Hannah Scott), 'Team', and 'Followers' (3). The 'USER & CC'S' section lists details for Hannah Scott, including her email, reference number, brand, department, language, and HR request type. The 'Messages' section shows an email from Hannah Scott to the user, dated May 10, 2023, with the subject 'Hi, please see the above.' Below the messages, there are two 'AGENT NOTE' sections. The bottom right section shows the 'Reply' form with fields for 'To:', 'Write a message...', 'Signature', and 'Send as' (Awaiting User, Agent, Team, Charge 10 seconds, Macro). The interface is numbered 1 through 8, corresponding to the steps in the text below.

1. Red: View the ticket title and edit by clicking on it, view the ticket's ID number, add labels to the ticket

2. Orange: Switch from the default view of ticket properties to one of our ticket actions and apps
3. Yellow: Set the ticket's status and urgency, change the assigned agent and agent team, and add followers to the ticket
4. Green: Change the user who is set as the ticket owner and add CCs
 1. The user is the customer you are communicating with; any people who are added CCs will also receive messages you send to them
5. Blue: View and edit the ticket's fields
 1. The fields that appear here are controlled in admin like this
6. Black: Ticket actions give you more controls to interact with your ticket. Press the More button to see a full list.
 1. Many ticket actions will persist in the area marked 2 once in use for easy access.
7. Grey: Switch between viewing the ticket messages and the ticket's history (and the ticket summary if one has been added via the ticket actions menu (7))
 1. The arrow icon next to "Messages" will let you switch the display order of the ticket's messages. Choose whether you'd like the most recent message to appear at the top or bottom of your screen.
8. Pink: The reply box lets you send messages to your user through any channels you have set up or add a note to the ticket for your fellow agents to read.
 1. The "TT" button in the toolbar will give you access to more formatting options.
 2. Switch between reply box tabs to change which channel you would like to use.
