Ability to set the column width in ticket views Collecting Feedback

- Eric VanTol
- Forum name: #Feature Request

I would like to have the ability to set the column widths in ticket views. When adding additional columns into ticket views, the 'Subject' column often takes up most of the page width, leaving other columns unreadable. See attached screenshot.